Does God promise protection from the coming calamities that will be poured out upon an unrepentant and rebellious world? If so, where is the place of safety? Who will be protected? What happens to those who will not be protected?

Does God promise protection? Unrepentant sins and disobedience to God's commandments has brought untold misery, pain and suffering upon this world. The Bible states that man does not know the way to peace Is 59:8. When men will say "peace" sudden inescapable destruction comes upon them Jer 6:14. The Great Tribulation is just around the corner, and will be so devastating that only Christ's return will stop world suicide from becoming a reality Mt 24:21-22.

Who will be protected? God promises supernatural protection for His true church (elect) during the great tribulation of 3 1/2 years (time, times and half-a-time) Revelation 12:14. Conversely, we also find another scripture that informs us about at least part of the church will suffer Satan's persecution, while others will be supernaturally protected Rev 12:17. There are no scriptures in the Bible stating exactly how God will protect His elect, or where the specific location is.
